Providing Employment for Women

Sewing HopeKits

Sewing HopeKits provides meaningful employment for the sewing team at 100 Humanitarians International. By producing reusable hygiene kits, these skilled women not only earn a stable income but also contribute to a project that transforms the lives of other women and girls in their communities. This job enables them to support their families, pay for education, and invest in their futures. The work also fosters a sense of pride and purpose, as they know their efforts are helping to break down barriers to health, education, and opportunity for countless others.
